The CIVICUS Monitor Tool is a techsoup@wacsi.org/

SUSTAINABILITY

CIVIL SOCIETY

ELECTION

ADVOCACY

in West Africa

SITUATION REPORT

CLOSED

Combination of legal and practical constraints on the full enjoyment of fundamental rights

OPEN

ance from their governments regarding sexual and gender

Liberians

Director General, the objective of Benin Border Week was to inform the general public Mobilisation for the Benefit of Border Areas", through a press conference given by the strategies, civil society effectively utilize diversified resources to strengthen its operaelections in a spirit of responsible competition and in a climate of tolerance and soli-

21 June 2019. The candidates are hoping to replace President Mohamed Ould Ab-traced to the country by INTERPOL (International Criminal Police Organisation), are put a closure on the matter. Mr. Usman and the police officers embarked on a jour-

Civil Society Legislative Advocacy Centre (CISLAC), he said is currently one of the main general and African women on the front burner of the international discourse.

Amadou Koufa emerged in 2015. The demonstration was organised by a youth asso-history, preceded by 41 further deaths in ethnic violence.

ciation demanding the disarming of militia and for people to “say no to hate” what-

Amadou Koufa emerged in 2015. The demonstration was organised by a youth asso-

Anglophone regions and a revision of the electoral code.

tions. Despite the crackdown, the party spokesman assures that the pacific na-party leader Maurice Kamto and 150 of their supporters, who were imprisoned

In June, Mr. Usman, the Director of the Central Police Office in the capital of extracted from the West Africa Civil Society Institute (WACSI), in achieved through trainings organised by the West Africa Civil Society Institute networks and building robust alliances to enhance their advocacy engagements at communities. She also emphasised on the need to create opportunities for women commonwealth deputy head of countering violent extremism

The Commonwealth in collaboration with the Allamin Foundation for Peace and

The trainings also

The Commonwealth in collaboration with the Allamin Foundation for Peace and

Dr. Young raised the role of women, as Women, Peace and Development

Source: World Bank 2015

Civil Society (Meals) programme to support the education system in Ifangni

The project is part of the Strengthening and Participation of 2015, Green Girls has empowered and trained almost 800 women from 23

cameras. In the case of Cameroon, for example, between 2013 and 2015, Green Girls ended in Abuja on June 14, saw 38 entry level community organisers and

2015, Green Girls has empowered and trained almost 800 women from 23

national President

communities across Cameroon to generate solar energy and biogas from hu-

2015, Green Girls has empowered and trained almost 800 women from 23

communities across Cameroon to generate solar energy and biogas from hu-

Fawe

Cameroon

Nigeria

Mauritania

Nigeria

Fawe

Cameroon

Mauritania

-

SOURCE

WOMEN AND YOUTH ADVOCACY

WOMEN AND YOUTH ADVOCACY

WOMEN AND YOUTH ADVOCACY

-